

APM Scottish Conference

Professionalising Programme & Project Management

Thursday 18th March 2010 9.30 am to 4.30 pm
Edinburgh Corn Exchange, 11 Newmarket Road, Edinburgh, EH14 1RJ

Share the latest thinking and meet industry leading practitioners

The conference will be chaired by Andrew Bragg,
CEO of the Association for Project Management

Keynote speakers:

- Anne Moises, Scottish Government's head of project & programme management profession.
- Mike Nichols, chairman & chief executive, The Nichols Group.
- Trevor Band, APM board member.

Delegates will be invited to ask questions and make comments after these presentations.

4 inter-active Workshops will allow delegates to attend their choice of sessions during the afternoon:

- Using organisational maturity models.
- The importance of leadership in project and programme management.
- Outputs, benefits or value? What do programmes & projects deliver?
- Developing people as programme and project managers.

Delegate rate: Earlybird discount
until 5th February 2010 £75 thereafter £100.

To book please call: 01844 271 689.

Association for Project Management

Ibis House, Regent Park
Summerleys Road,
Princes Risborough
Buckinghamshire, HP27 9LE

Telephone +44 (0) 845 458 1944
Facsimile +44 (0) 845 458 8807
Email info@apm.org.uk
Web www.apm.org.uk